

Our Cabins

Our cabins have full kitchens including a dishwasher, central heat and air-conditioning, fireplaces, washers and dryers, cable TV and VCR/DVD, telephones, wireless internet access, porches with rocking chairs, decks with picnic tables and BBQ grill and luxury bedding with towels, soap, and paper products furnished. Even Boyd Mountain Roasted Coffee to begin your day and fresh flowers on your table.

Our seven rental cabins are unique, authentic hand hewn log cabins dating back 150 to 200 years. They have been carefully restored and tastefully furnished with antiques and modern conveniences. Each cabin is named after the location from which the cabin originally stood.

Our Location

The cabins are spaced around the property to give you more privacy and beautiful views. A vacation to be remembered in every season blending mountain authenticity in a peaceful country setting.

Easy to get to ... Hard to forget.

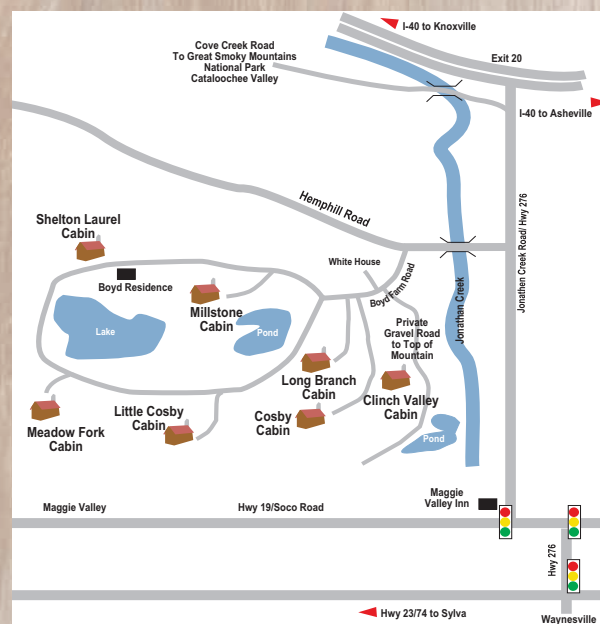

We are centrally located near Maggie Valley and historic Waynesville, North Carolina. Minutes from the Blue Ridge Parkway and the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Also close is the Cherokee Indian Reservation to the west and Asheville with the Biltmore Estate and Winery to the east.

Hospitality meets History at Boyd Mountain Log Cabins

The seven Boyd Mountain Log Cabins are unique, authentic hand hewn log cabins dating back 150 to 200 years. They have been carefully restored and tastefully furnished with antiques and modern conveniences. The cabins are nestled in a 130 acre cove overlooking the Smoky Mountains, stocked fishing ponds and our Fraser Fir Christmas tree farm. Cows in the meadow, horses in the pasture, ducks and geese on the ponds, and 3 friendly Jack Russell terriers to entertain you. Sorry, no other pets are allowed.

Enjoy free fishing in three stocked ponds, and Jonathan Creek state stocked trout stream. Basketball, volleyball, badminton, bird-watching, and hiking trails to the top of Boyd Mountain as well as sledding in the winter, add to the offered activities. Also skiing and snow boarding at Cataloochee Ski Area, in Maggie Valley offers KIDS SKI FREE and STAY FREE at Boyd Mountain Log Cabins during the snow skiing season at Cataloochee with Holidays excluded.
