

The TOWN OF MT. PLEASANT CALENDAR OF EVENTS

JANUARY

Lowcountry Oyster Festival
Get Shuckin' at the world's largest oyster roast! Held at Boone Hall Plantation.

APRIL

Cooper River Bridge Run
Run, walk, or cheer 'em on in this scenic and celebrated 10K race!

The Blessing of the Fleet
Send off the shrimp fleet and sample fare from area restaurants!

APRIL -
OCTOBER

Farmers Market
Farm-fresh fruits and veggies, yummy baked goods and more. Get fresh with the locals!

JUNE

Sweetgrass Cultural Arts Festival
Learn about this unique art form and the rich culture behind it.

JULY

Patriots Point 4th of July Blast
Great food, family fun and fabulous fireworks over Charleston Harbor. Admission is free!

SEPTEMBER

Scottish Games
Join in this celebration of "all things Scottish" (yes, bagpipes too) at Boone Hall Plantation.

OCTOBER

A Taste of Charleston at Boone Hall
Area restaurants offer up mouth-watering specialties. You won't go away hungry!

NOVEMBER

Battle of Secessionville
Witness firsthand this pivotal 1862 Civil War battle reenacted at Boone Hall Plantation.

DECEMBER

Holiday Market and Christmas Parade
Kick off the season with gifts and goodies from the Holiday Market and bask in the glow of floats adorned with thousands of lights!

Welcome

Thank you for considering Mount Pleasant for your next vacation destination. Known for its scenic beauty and proximity to beaches, Mount Pleasant offers visitors a multitude of activities your family will cherish for a lifetime. Whether you are a golfer, nature-lover, history buff, beach comber, or shopper, we have something for everybody! What's more, our reasonable hotel rates and abundant free parking make Mount Pleasant an ideal and affordable place to stay during your visit to the Lowcountry.

Mount Pleasant SC

COME ON OVER

Mount Pleasant Visitors Center
99 Harry M. Hallman, Jr. Blvd. Mount Pleasant, SC 29464
Open Daily 9am-5pm 800-774-0006
COMEONOVERMP.COM

1 Beautiful Shem Creek
The most picturesque waterway in the Lowcountry! Revel in glorious sunsets over Charleston Harbor as you enjoy outdoor dining at its best at Shem Creek's many restaurants.

2 Patriots Point Naval And Maritime Museum
Home to the aircraft carrier USS Yorktown, this museum also includes vintage military aircraft and the Congressional Medal of Honor Museum.

3 Memorial Waterfront Park
Boasting the longest fishing pier in the southeast, the park also features a Sweetgrass Cultural Arts Pavilion, War Memorial and new Visitors Center.

4 Historic Old Village
This National Register district is home to both colonial homes and historic churches. Stroll the narrow streets into the heart of the Old Village and explore the unique shops and boutiques.

5 Boone Hall Plantation
An avenue of stately moss-draped live oaks sweeps you into the past and onto the grounds of this former cotton plantation.

6 Charles Pinckney N.H.S.
Country estate of Charles Pinckney: statesman, revolutionary war officer, and framer of the constitution.